

I am against further consolidation of the broadcast and print media in the USA. A liberal information bias already exists and is a threat to a public that receives its news and entertainment tailored to a low common IQ denominator. For once leave well enough alone.